Founder: We just got done with day one of The Release, which was on April 5, 2024. People left feeling empowered...It's something where you don't feel powerful when you don't feel like you have the strength to even press on. When people came out, they felt that they were able to do what they couldn't do before. And so there was breakthrough there was crying. There was laughing. There was prayer. There was worship. Whatever you need, it was literally in the room.

Man 1: This something that you must come to if you haven't been here. This is my first time here...I got here this year. And boy, boy, boy, boy, boy, for all of you that didn't make it here is something that you don't want to miss.

Man 2: I'm taking my mask off for survival because it felt nearly impossible to attend this weekend and leave the mask on.

Women 1: It's also an experience for men and women to come together realizing that we all at one time or another, have walked around with a mask.

Man 3: The same God that did it for me is the same that will do it for you.

Women 2: I'm excited to go forward in my life knowing that I made the right decision to be here today to receive all the knowledge and the encouragement I need on this spiritual journey.

Woman 3: Be free to be who you want to be. Don't worry about what others have to say. Don't be doubtful live your trades and express yourself.

Woman 3: God wants you to show up as your most authentic and transparent and vulnerable self.

Man 3: I promise you come check it out man; it is changing my life. I can't wait to get there. God bless you all and we love you remember, obey. God bless you.
